

Clean Versions of Replacement Claims

Please amend claim 17 to conform to the following clean version.

17. A demodulator having a power approximation circuit coupled to receive a real and an imaginary component of a complex signal, the power approximation circuit generating an approximate power value which indicates an actual power value for the complex signal by combining absolute values of the real and imaginary components and then applying an expectation function to the combined absolute values.